

Where has STS Traveled?

Celebrating the 40th anniversary of the inaugural meeting of the Society for Social Studies of Science

PROGRAM

Location: Clark Hall 700

Thursday, 27 October 2016

4:30 – 6:00 Reception and Introduction to the conference

Opening remarks and welcome: Bruce Lewenstein, Chair, Cornell S&TS Department

Plenary: Sheila Jasanoff, Pforzheimer Professor, Harvard University; and Founding Chair, Cornell S&TS Department

Friday, 28 October 2016

9:00 – 10:30: The 1976 meeting: Reflections

Participants: Stuart Blume (Univ. Amsterdam), Robert Bud (Science Museum), Thomas Gieryn (Indiana Univ.), Ed Hackett (Brandeis Univ.), Karin Knorr Cetina (Univ. Chicago), Bruno Latour (Sciences Po), Sal Restivo (NYU), Steve Woolgar (Oxford Univ.)

10:30 – 11:00: Coffee

11:00 – 12:30 Perspectives on STS

Thomas Gieryn, Indiana University, "Getting to Truth-Spot: How DO Places Make People Believe?"

Michael Mascarenhas, RPI, "White Spaces and Black Boxes. Race and STS."

Discussant: Aryn Martin, York University

12:30 – 2:00: Lunch and Panel Discussion on STS Literature

Featuring editors and former editors of STS journals

2:00 – 3:30: Some Recent Travels in STS

Karin Knorr Cetina, University of Chicago, "Sampling the Technosphere of Finance: Three Transitions of What?"

Steve Woolgar, Linköping University, and Oxford University, "We Have Never Been Otherwise."

Discussant: H  l  ne Mialet, York University

3:30 – 4:00: Coffee

4:00 – 5:30: Panel Discussion from Graduate Students – Where do We See STS Headed?

Featuring students from Cornell, RPI, MIT, Penn, and others

5:30 – 6:00: Concluding remarks